CANO-RAFT

Duration: 0.5 | Difficulty: | Price from: 65 €

CANO-RAFT IN CHAMONIX: PILOT YOUR OWN CRAFT

Looking for a white-water adventure with more freedom and autonomy? Cano-rafting is the perfect way to discover river paddling while taking control of your own inflatable craft. More independent than rafting and more accessible than kayaking, a canoe-raft is a stable two-person inflatable craft that allows you to navigate the river yourself.

Accompanied by a professional guide travelling in their own craft, you will learn how to use the currents, eddies and rapids of the Arve River while progressing safely. Over approximately 45 minutes and more than 6 km, enjoy a fun and active adventure in the heart of the Chamonix Valley. Working together with your partner, you'll take charge of your descent and experience all the excitement of white-water paddling.

AN ADVENTURE BETWEEN RAFTING AND KAYAKING

Thanks to its stability and manoeuvrability, the canoe-raft is an excellent introduction to river navigation. This activity allows you to quickly gain confidence and independence while benefiting from the guidance and expertise of your instructor. Located in the centre of Chamonix, our white-water base offers changing rooms and hot showers for your comfort. All technical equipment is provided.
