Duration: 2

Fitness: ▲▲▲▲▲ Technique: ▲▲▲▲▲

Price from: 480 €

The Col du Passon is one of the emblematic passes of the Mont Blanc Massif, offering a magnificent winter crossing between the Argentière and Tour glaciers. This traverse provides the opportunity to explore vast glacial areas while enjoying exceptional views of the surrounding peaks, such as the Aiguille Verte (4,122 m) and the Chardonnet (3,824 m). We offer a two-day program that begins with a warm-up day, including an overnight stay at the Lognan Hut. The following day, you will tackle the ascent of the Col du Passon, followed by a long and splendid descent to the village of Le Tour. Designed for skiers with prior ski touring experience, this trip offers the perfect chance to explore alpine terrain while combining skiing and mountaineering.

For an even more immersive experience, we recommend our Glacier du Tour program, scheduled from the beginning of winter. This similar program includes a third day with an additional night at the Albert ler Hut, providing more time to fully enjoy this magnificent setting.

ITINERARY

Day 1

We take the ski lifts from the Grands Montets resort to the top of the Bochard cable car (2,766 m). From there, we make a short descending traverse to reach the Glacier de Lognan (2,700 m). We then ascend via the Col des Rachasses to the Col des Grands Montets (3,225 m). We then embark on a magnificent descent to the Glacier d'Argentière, which we follow to the Lognan Hut (2,067 m), where we spend the night.

Elevation gain: 575 m / Elevation loss: 750 m

Day 2

Col du Passon (3028m). We climb up the length of the Argentière glacier, which we cross to reach the Passon moraine (2380m). We cross the moraine on foot, we may require crampons. The climb continues on skis. The slopes here are wide up until the col, which we reach using crampons and roped together via a couloir about a hundred metres high. The views from the col, over not only the Argentière basin but also the Le Tour basin, are simply breath-taking. The ski down to the village of Le Tour via the Le Tour glacier is a must of the Chamonix valley ! 1 600m of great skiing!

Vertical ascent: 960m / Vertical descent: 1600m
