MOUNTAINEERING - WINTER MOUNTAINEERING COURSE

Duration: 3

Level: ▲▲▲▲▲

Price from: 635 €

During the winter season, the Mont Blanc massif remains an exceptional playground for mountaineers. The numerous ski lifts provide swift access to a wide variety of routes. This winter mountaineering course primarily focuses on improving your mixed climbing skills. The distinctive feature of this course is its small group sizes, with a maximum of four guests per group led by one guide. You'll receive personalized guidance from your guide, and the course's flexibility ensures a high-quality experience. Snowshoes will be used for approaches. To enroll in this course, previous mountaineering experience is required, including proficiency in using crampons and basic belaying techniques. For total beginners, we recommend considering our ice climbing course.

This course is part of a series of mountaineering courses designed to accompany you from your first alpine adventures to lead climbing. Explore mountaineering with our 3-day or 5-day courses, and acquire safety techniques through our level 1 and level 2 safety courses, as well as our lead climbing course. Additionally, our courses are available in winter with a focus on mixed climbing and ice climbing.

The objectives of the winter mountaineering course

- Introduction to understanding avalanches risks and winter mountaineering
- Mastery and progression of mountaineering techniques on mixed terrain

ITINERARY

Day 1 : Ice-Climbing & mountaineering basics

First meeting with your guide, check of the equipment. Ice climbing at the Cremerie in Argentière or Berard in Vallorcine, top rope or lead climb. Mountaineering basics : roping, belaying, rappelling..

Days 2 : Route from Helbronner (3642m)

This day is focused on a snow route. We will climb Petit Flambeau (3407m), Aiguille de Toule (3534m) or a corridor in les Marbrées.
