Duration: 1

Fitness: ▲▲▲▲▲ Technique: ▲▲▲▲▲

The Aiguille du Tour in a day is the best summit for a first experience combining trail running and mountaineering. The route offers varied terrain conditions making it a fun and varied route. The ascent starts in the Tour village. A steep path along the old moraine leads us to the Albert premier hut. From there, we start walking on the Glacier du Tour finally arriving at the bottom of Aiguille du Tour. A last easy section on rocky terrain leads us to the summit where the views over the Mont Blanc Massif and the distant Swiss peaks is stunning. We return to the Tour village by the same route.

We guarantee you the security standards adapted to this ascent that partially takes place in the high mountains on glacier. No previous mountaineering experience is required. Thanks to our partnership with Grivel, light mountaineering gear is provided (ice axe, crampons, harness, helmet).
