MOUNTAINEERING INTRODUCTION COURSE FOR TEENAGERS

Duration: 4

Difficulty: ▲▲▲▲▲

Price from: 550 €

This mountaineering course has been specially designed to introduce you to the basic techniques of mountaineering. Each day, our programme explores new sites, guaranteeing a varied and stimulating experience while allowing young people to push their limits, creating lasting memories. The emphasis is on being part of a team, requiring communication and coordination. The young people are invited to co-construct the week's programme by choosing routes from the topo.

There are some essential prerequisites for enrolment: participants must have completed the “multi-pitch climbing” course.

Teaching methods used

- Application of long route climbing techniques at altitude
- Introduction to mountaineering techniques (specific knots, rope and belay management, hauling techniques)
- Snow and ice school to discover cramponing and the use of ice axes and crampons.

GROUP BOOKING

The group option brings together children who don't necessarily know each other. It's the ideal way to get the most out of the group experience.
