Duration: 2

Fitness: ▲▲▲▲▲ Technique: ▲▲▲▲▲

Price from: 250 €

Discover the magic of a night spent in the mountains with your family. Embark on a worry-free two-day family adventure. We take care of the logistics, so all you have to do is enjoy the moment.

ITINERARY

Day 1

Ascent to the mountain hut

From the Guides Company office, we'll head to the train station to catch the train to the village of Vallorcine - the Valley of the Bears - at the very end of the Chamonix Valley. During the ascent to the refuge, your guide will share all the little secrets of the mountain flora and fauna. Upon arrival at the refuge, those who are tired from the climb can enjoy the view from the terrace. Others can explore the mountain environment with the "Little Naturalists" workshops (observing flora, discovering high-altitude ponds... the theme will be adapted to the current conditions). After a convivial meal in the common room, it will be time to head to the dormitory to recharge for the next day.

Distance : approximately 2.8 miles / Elevation gain : approximately 2624ft

Day 2

Return to the valley

Discover the magic of waking up in the mountains. We rise with the first rays of sunlight to admire the chamois (mountain goat) grazing on the surrounding slopes before enjoying breakfast. It's time to gather our belongings and say goodbye to the mountain hut staff before heading towards the Tête de la Chevrette. If we're lucky, we might spot ibex and marmots. We then begin the descent towards Fontaine Froide before reaching the impressive Berard waterfall and its refreshment bar for a well-deserved snack. We'll finish our hike at Le Buet train station where we'll catch the train back to Chamonix.

Distance : approximately 4.7 miles / Elevation gain : approximately 196ft / Elevation loss : approximately 2460ft
